

Deep Pharma Intelligence (DPI) Distribution Partnership Terms

Deep Pharma Intelligence (DPI) offers exclusive access to a suite of analytical and visualisation platforms, including tailored dashboards designed to meet the intricate needs of the Pharmaceutical, Biotech, and Healthcare industries. Our platforms provide comprehensive market and ecosystem data, essential for making informed, strategic decisions.

These tools, developed from DPI's extensive experience in market intelligence and strategic consulting, are now available for third-party use. They offer unparalleled insights into AI in drug discovery, oncology, emerging therapeutic technologies, and more, empowering users with the necessary data to stay ahead in the dynamic BioTech sector.

DPI seeks partners to distribute these specialised platforms and dashboards, as well as other services. Distributors will earn a commission of 22% of the contract price. To support our partners, DPI provides a complete set of resources, including detailed documentation, engagement assets, and strategic message drafts, ensuring effective marketing and distribution of these essential industry tools.

Distribution Partnership Terms:

As a leader in delivering bespoke solutions for the Pharmaceutical, Biotech, and Healthcare industries, Deep Pharma Intelligence (DPI) extends an invitation to potential distribution partners to represent its sophisticated suite of products in the market. Our offerings, honed through years of expertise in market intelligence and strategic consulting, specialise in creating tailored dashboards, platforms, and analytical tools that provide comprehensive insights into these dynamic sectors.

To facilitate the success of distribution partners, DPI offers the following terms:

Commission Structure:

- 22% commission of the contract price for each subscription/product sold.
- Applicable for up to 12 consecutive months for renewed subscriptions.

Dashboard Version Commission:

- 22% commission of the contract price for commissioned Big Data Analytical System and Dashboards (white label solution).

High-Value Contract Commission:

- 32% commission of the contract price for contracts exceeding 100,000 USD.

Renewal Commissions:

- Original commission structure (22% of the contract price) for up to 12 consecutive months for renewed subscriptions.

Our commitment to offering cutting-edge, client-specific SaaS products, combined with a lucrative commission structure, is designed to foster a mutually beneficial relationship with our partners. DPI is enthusiastic about achieving collective success in the evolving landscape of Life Sciences and warmly welcomes further discussions to initiate a partnership agreement.
